Subject: Jeff Shea- Kazuhiro Sakashita Depo Prep/Merits Review Update

Tcam: I have completed the JLA: Sakashita, Kazuhiro _name + e-mail (CRT) JLASKASHITA00002 batch. Fairly small % of interesting docs in this batch- I've summarized a few below. The batch contained a large number of p etc. The p that definitively regarded CRTs were coded as "relevant" for Pricing. However, in the majority of these types of docs, I was unable to determine whether CRTs or LCDs were at issue. There were also a good amount of foreign language docs in the batch- some of these included English versions of articles from industry publications like Digitimes and iSuppli. I will move on to one of the newly-created Sakashita batches. Thanks

HAS-CRT00040181: 2/25/9 (note that date of doc is pre-class period). Sakashita writes that See attached

HAS-CRT00040167: possible Impact-Interchangeability & Elasticity sub-issues here)

HAS-CRT00040168: Sakashita writes that or Not clear whether this doc is conspiracy-relevant
